I've been a huge Billy Joel fan my whole life, and to have the keyboard/vocal transcriptions from his music is great. The transcriptions are, for the most part, exactly what you hear on the records. There are a just a few mistakes, but none that are significant enough to even consider deducting a star from this product.

(Apparently, Billy Joel couldn't play it up to speed very easily. I couldn't blame him.) When the recording was sped up back to its original tempo, the song ended up going up one half step as a result. I thought it sounded good in that key, so I added the key change into my arrangement of Root Beer Rag.
